A. Foreign Contribution

Q1. What is foreign contribution?

As defined in Section 2(1)(h) of FCRA, 2010, "foreign contribution" means the donation, delivery or transfer made by any foreign source –

(i) of any article, not being an article given to a person* as a gift for his personal use, if the market value, in India, of such an article, on the date of such gift is not more than such sum as may be specified from time to time by the Central Government by the rules made by it on this behalf.

(ii) of any currency, whether Indian or foreign;

(iii) of any security as defined in clause (h) of section 2 of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 and includes any foreign security as defined in clause (o) of Section 2 of the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999.

Explanation 1 – A donation, delivery or transfer of any article, currency or foreign security referred to in this clause by any person who has received it from any foreign source, either directly or through one or more persons, shall also be deemed to be foreign contribution within the meaning of this clause. Explanation 2 – The interest accrued on the foreign contribution deposited in any bank referred to in sub-section (1) of Section 17 or any other income derived from the foreign contribution or interest thereon shall also be deemed to be foreign contribution within the meaning of this clause. Explanation3–Any amount received, by any person from any foreign source in India, by way of fee (including fees charged by an educational institution in India from foreign student) or towards cost in lieu of goods or services rendered by such person in the ordinary course of his business, trade or commerce whether within India or outside India or any contribution received from an agent or a foreign source towards such fee or cost shall be excluded from the definition of foreign contribution within the meaning of this clause.

In terms of FCRA, 2010 "person" includes –

- (i) an individual;
- (ii) a Hindu undivided family;
- (iii) an association;
- (iv) a company registered under section 25 of the Companies Act, 1956 (now Section 8 of Companies Act, 2013).

Q2. Who can receive foreign contributions?

Any “Person” can receive foreign contribution subject to the following conditions:-

- a) It must have a definite cultural, economic, educational, religious or social programme. b) It must obtain the FCRA registration/prior permission from the Central Government
- c) It must not be prohibited under Section 3 of FCRA, 2010.

Q3. Who cannot receive foreign contributions?

As defined in Section 3(1) of FCRA, 2010, the following are prohibited to receive foreign contribution:

- (a) candidate for election;

- (b) Correspondent, columnist, cartoonist, editor, owner, printer or publisher of a registered newspaper;
- (c) Public Servant, Judge, Government servant or employee of any corporation or any other body controlled or owned by the Government;
- (d) Member of any legislature;
- (e) Political party or office bearer thereof;
- (f) organization of a political nature as may be specified under sub-section (1) of Section 5 by the Central Government.
- (g) association or company engaged in the production or broadcast of audio news or audio visual news or current affairs programmes through any electronic mode, or any other electronic form as defined in clause (r) of sub-section (1) of Section 2 of the Information Technology Act, 2000 or any other mode of mass communication;
- (h) Correspondent or columnist, cartoonist, editor, owner of the association or company referred to in point (g).
- (i) Individuals or associations who have been prohibited from receiving foreign contributions.

Q4. Can foreign contributions be received in rupees?

Yes. Any donation, delivery or transfer received from a 'foreign source' whether in rupees or in foreign currency is construed as 'foreign contribution' under FCRA, 2010. Such transactions including interest on foreign contribution or income derived from foreign contribution even in rupees terms are considered as foreign contribution.

Q5. Will interest or any other income earned from foreign contribution (FC) be considered foreign contribution?

Yes. It will become part of F.C. Please see Explanation 2 under Question 1.

Q6. Can interest or any other income earned out of foreign contribution be shown as fresh foreign contribution receipt during that year?

No. The interest or any other income earned out of foreign contribution should be shown against Column 2(i)(b) in the annual return (Form FC-4) during the year in which it is earned. Such interest or income would be considered as F.C.

Q7. Whether earnings from foreign client(s) by a person in lieu of goods sold or a service rendered by it is treated as foreign contribution?

No. As clarified at Explanation 3 under section 2(1)(h), foreign contribution excludes earnings from foreign client(s) by a person in lieu of goods sold or services rendered by it as this is a transaction of commercial nature/quid pro quo in the normal course of business trade etc within or outside India.

Q8. Can donations given by Non-Resident Indians (NRIs) be treated as 'foreign contribution'?

Contributions made by a citizen of India living in another country (i.e., Non-Resident Indian), from his personal savings, through the normal banking channels, are not treated as foreign contributions. However, while accepting any donations from such NRI, it is advisable to obtain his/her passport details to ascertain that he/she is actually an Indian citizen.

Q9. Can donation given by an individual of Indian origin and having foreign nationality be treated as 'foreign contribution'?

Yes. Donations from an Indian origin person who has acquired foreign citizenship is treated as foreign contribution. This will also apply to PIO / OCI cardholders. They are foreigners. However, this will not apply to 'Non-resident Indians', who still hold Indian citizenship as they are not foreigners.

Q10. Can foreign remittances received from a relative be treated as foreign contribution as per FCRA, 2010?

No. As per section 4(e) of FCRA, 2010 and Rule 6 of FCRR, 2011, even the persons prohibited under section 3, i.e., persons not permitted to accept foreign contribution, are allowed to accept foreign contribution from their relatives. However, in terms of Rule 6 of FCRR, 2011, any person receiving foreign contribution in excess of ten lakh rupees or equivalent thereto in a financial year from any of his relatives shall inform the Central Government in electronic Form FC-1 within three months from the date of receipt of such contribution. This form may be filled online on the website: <https://fcraonline.nic.in>

Q11. Can individuals not covered under Section 3 or a HUF accept foreign contributions freely for the purposes listed in section 4 of FCRA, 2010?

Yes. Since, subject to the provisions of Section 10, even the persons specified under section 3, i.e., persons not permitted to accept foreign contribution, are allowed to receive foreign contribution for the purposes listed in section 4, it is obvious that Individuals in general and a HUF are permitted to accept foreign contribution without permission for the purposes listed in section 4. However, it should be borne in mind that the monetary limit for acceptance of foreign contribution in the form of any article given as gift to a person for his personal use has been specified as Rs. one lakh vide FCR Amendment Rules, 2019.

Q12. Can fees paid by foreign delegates/participants attending/participating in a conference/seminar etc. be termed as foreign contribution and thus require permission from FCRA?

No. "Delegate/participation Fees" paid by foreign delegates/participants for participation in a conference/seminar and which is utilized for the purpose of meeting the expenditure of hosting the conference/seminar is not treated as foreign contribution and as such no permission under FCRA is required by the recipient.

Q13. Section 2(c)(i) of repealed FCRA, 1976 defined foreign contribution as the donation, delivery or transfer made by any foreign source of any article, not given to a person as a gift for personal use, if the market value, in India, of such article exceeds one thousand rupees.

What limit has been prescribed in FCRA, 2010 in respect of such articles?

The limit has been specified as Rs. One lakh through insertion of the following Rule 6A in FCRR, 2011 vide the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) (Second Amendment) Rules, 2019 [G.S.R. 659 (E) dated 16th September, 2019]: "6A. When articles gifted for personal use do not amount to foreign contribution. - Any article gifted to a person for his personal use whose market value in India on the date of such gift does not exceed rupees one lakh shall not be a foreign contribution within the meaning of sub-clause (i) of clause (h) of sub-section (1) of section (2).

B. Foreign Source

Q14. What is a foreign source?

Foreign source, as defined in Section 2(1) (j) of FCRA, 2010 includes:-

- (i) the Government of any foreign country or territory and any agency of such Government;
- (ii) any international agency, not being the United Nations or any of its specialized agencies, the World Bank, International Monetary Fund or such other agency as the Central Government may, by notification, specify in this behalf;

Q1. How does a person obtain permission to accept Foreign Contribution?

There are two modes of obtaining permission to accept foreign contribution according to FCRA, 2010:

- Registration
- Prior Permission

A. Eligibility

Q2. What is the eligibility criteria for granting registration?

For grant of registration under FCRA, 2010, the association should:

(i) be registered under an existing statute like the Societies Registration Act, 1860 or the Indian Trusts

Act, 1882 or section 25 of the Companies Act, 1956 (Now Section 8 of Companies Act, 2013) etc;

(ii) be in existence for at least three years and have undertaken reasonable activity in its chosen field for the benefit of the society for which the foreign contribution is proposed to be utilized. The applicant NGO/association will be free to choose its items of expenditure (excluding the administrative expenditure as defined in Rule 5 of FCRR, 2011) to become eligible for the minimum threshold of Rs. 15.00 lakh spent during the last three years. If the association wants inclusion of its capital investment in assets like land, building, other permanent structures, vehicles, equipments etc, then the Chief Functionary shall have to give an undertaking that these assets shall be utilized only for the FCRA activities and they will not be diverted for any other purpose till FCRA registration of the NGO holds.

Q3. What is the eligibility criteria for grant of prior permission?

An organization in the formative stage is not eligible for a certificate of registration. Such organizations may apply for grant of prior permission under FCRA, 2010. Prior permission is granted for receipt of a specific amount from specific donors/donors for carrying out specific activities/projects. For this purpose, the association should meet following criteria:

(I) be registered under an existing statute like the Societies Registration Act, 1860 or the Indian Trusts Act, 1882 or section 25 of the Companies Act, 1956 etc;

(II) submit a specific commitment letter from the donor indicating the amount of foreign contribution and the purpose for which it is proposed to be given; and

(III) For Indian recipient organizations and foreign donor organizations having common members, FCRA Prior Permission shall be granted to the Indian recipient organizations subject to its satisfying the following:

i) The Chief Functionary of the recipient Indian organization should not be a part of the donor organization.

ii) At least 75% of the office-bearers/ members of the Governing body of the Indian recipient organization should not be members/employees of the foreign donor organization.

iii) In case of foreign donor organization being a single person/individual that person should not be the Chief Functionary or office bearer of the recipient Indian organization.

iv) In case of a single foreign donor, at least 75% office bearers/members of the governing body of the recipient organization should not be the family members and close relatives of the donor.

Q4. What are the conditions that need to be met for the grant of registration and prior permission?

In terms of Sec.12 (4) of FCRA, 2010, the following shall be the conditions for the grant of registration and prior permission:

(a) The 'person' making an application for registration or grant of prior permission-

- i. is not fictitious or benami;
- ii. has not been prosecuted or convicted for indulging in activities aimed at conversion through inducement or force, either directly or indirectly, from one religious faith to another;
- iii. has not been prosecuted or convicted for creating communal tension or disharmony in any specified district or any other part of the country;
- iv. has not been found guilty of diversion or mis-utilization of its funds;
- v. is not engaged or likely to engage in propagation of sedition or advocate violent methods to achieve its ends;
- vi. is not likely to use the foreign contribution for personal gains or divert it for undesirable purposes;
- vii. has not contravened any of the provisions of this Act;
- viii. has not been prohibited from accepting foreign contribution;
- ix. the person being an individual, such individual has neither been convicted under any law for the time being in force nor any prosecution for any offense is pending against him.
- x. the person being other than an individual, any of its directors or office bearers has neither been convicted under any law for the time being in force nor any prosecution for any offense is pending against him.

(b) the acceptance of foreign contribution by the association/ person is not likely to affect prejudicially-

- i. the sovereignty and integrity of India;
- ii. the security, strategic, scientific or economic interest of the State;
- iii. the public interest;
- iv. freedom or fairness of election to any Legislature;
- v. friendly relation with any foreign State;
- vi. harmony between religious, racial, social, linguistic, regional groups, castes or communities.

(c) the acceptance of foreign contribution-

- i. shall not lead to incitement of an offence;
- ii. shall not endanger the life or physical safety of any person.

Q5. Can a private limited company or a partnership firm get registration or prior permission under FCRA, 2010?

Yes, a private limited company too may seek prior permission/registration for receiving foreign funds in case they wish to do some work useful/beneficial to society.

Q6. Can an individual or a Hindu Undivided Family (HUF) be given registration or prior permission to accept foreign contributions in terms of section 11 of FCRA, 2010?

Yes. The definition of the 'person' under section 2(1)(m) in the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act, 2010 includes any individual and a 'Hindu Undivided Family' among others. As such an Individual or an HUF is also eligible to apply for certificate of registration or prior permission to accept foreign contributions.

Q7. Can organizations under Central/State Governments be required to obtain registration or prior permission under FCRA, 2010 for accepting foreign contributions?

Yes. However all organizations (not being a political party), constituted or established by or under a Central Act or a State Act or by any administrative or executive order of the Central Government or any State Government and wholly owned by the respective Government and required to have their accounts compulsorily audited by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India (CAG) or any of the agencies of the CAG, are exempted from the operation of all the provisions of FCRA, 2010.

B. Executive Committee

Q8. Can foreigners be appointed as Executive Committee members of an association seeking registration or prior permission?

Organizations having foreign nationals, other than of Indian origin, as members of their executive committees or governing bodies are generally NOT permitted to receive foreign contributions.

However, foreigners may be allowed to be associated with such associations in an ex-officio capacity, if they are representing multilateral bodies, foreign contribution from whom is exempted from the purview of the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act, 2010, or in a purely honorary capacity depending upon the person's stature in his/her field of activity.

Relaxation may be considered on case to case basis by an authority higher than the competent authority, if any of the following grounds is met:

- i. the foreigner is married to an Indian citizen;
- ii. the foreigner has been living and working in India for at least five years;
- iii. the foreigner has made available his/her specialized knowledge, especially in the medical and health related fields on a voluntary basis in India, in the past;

iv. the foreigner is a part of the Board of Trustees/Executive Committee in term so the provisions in an inter-governmental agreement;

v. the foreigner is part of the Board of Trustees/Executive Committee, in an ex-officio capacity representing a multilateral body which is exempted from the definition of foreign source.

Q9. Can Government servants, Judges and employees of a Government owned/controlled company/body be on the executive committees/boards of an association?

Yes. The legal entity of a 'person' under FCRA, 2010 is distinct from an individual person. Therefore, individuals who cannot receive foreign contributions may happen to be on the executive committees/boards of such an association.
